

PARENT UNIVERSITY

Saturday, November 4
8:00 am to 12 noon
Holten Richmond Middle School

Danvers Parent University is a ½ day conference for parents, caregivers and professionals working with students in kindergarten through high school.
Keynote: “Cultivating a Growth Mindset: A Key to Unlocking Your Child’s Potential” featuring Michael Mascolo, PhD., Professor of Psychology, Merrimack University.

Register by October 31!

Choose from 14 learning sessions! Workshops are designed by grade level and by theme: Academic, Wellness, and Technology. Full descriptions and registration are on:

<https://danverspublicschools.org/parent-university/>

- Ready for Routines!
- Early Childhood Learning Expectations
- Writers Workshop
- The Impact of Screen Time on Early Development
- Inside the Digital World of Teens
- Healthy Kids On and Off the Field
- Adolescent Holistic Mental Wellness
- College Applications, the Here and Now!
- Google Apps that Support Learning
- Teaching Mindfulness
- In Plain Sight
- 21st Century Health Education
- Healthy Homework Habits
- A Growth Mindset for Math

Free
childcare
will be provided by the Danvers YMCA
for Kindergarten+

ADDED BONUS

Morning refreshments!
Door prizes!
Community resource tables!
(Listed on website)

Childcare is offered on-site at Holten Richmond Middle School the day of the event for children Kindergarten and up.

Pre-registration for childcare is required. In order to ensure adequate staffing, there will be no on-site childcare registration the day of the event.

For questions, call Peg Sallade, DanversCARES at 978-777-8932 x2214.